9 May 2012

Dear Ms. Mihailova and Mr. Thiele,

I have the honour to transmit to you, for information, State party's further submission dated 25 April 2012, and to acknowledge receipt of your further submission dated 8 May 2012, concerning the communication No. 2073/2011, which you submitted to the Human Rights Committee for consideration under the Optional Protocol to the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, on behalf of Ms. Liliana Naidenova et al.

A copy of your further submission has been transmitted to the State party for information.

In accordance with rule 92 of the Committee's rules of procedure, the State party has also been reminded not to evict Ms. Liliana Naidenova et al., and not to demolish their dwellings, while their case is under consideration by the Committee. While Ms. Liliana Naidenova et al. have not been forcibly evicted, cutting off the water supply to the Dobri Jeliaskov community could be considered an indirect means of achieving eviction. Therefore, the Committee also requested the State party to re-establish water supply to the Dobri Jeliaskov community.

Yours sincerely,

Ibrahim Salama
Director
Human Rights Treaties Division
